Carr PTA Room Mothers Hold Annual Dinner Tonight Here

By JO JENSEN DA 4-7374
It's May again. May with its calendar so full of social events that we really will be spinning. It's a good thing summer vacations will follow soon and families can get to know each other again. Every year I promise myself to get that spring cleaning done early so I can feel free to have fun during May but there always seems to be windows or closets or something left so I can't just be a social butterfly an month. This year those late rains fouled me up and the windows are all watered again. Oh well, all play and no work would be dull. I've been told. It would be interesting to find out for myself once, though.
Mrs. Richard Hubert was a hostess to the Room Mothers of the Evelyn Carr PTA at "Coffee Break" on Monday morning. This served as an introduction to the annual Room Mothers Dinner which will be this evening at the Palms.
The Lars Holts, 16838 Thornburg, have evened it up at their house. Richard Edward, who weighed in at 6 lbs. 4 oz. is making it four boys and four girls. Congratulations.
Jerry Blake went to Norwalk to spend the week end with Rita, Tom and Mrs. Garrity. While there he was the guest of the Woodcraft Rangers at a dinner. There was special entertainment by the Mouse-teers. Jerry stayed over Sunday to help the Garritys move down the block to their new home.
Little Maureen Hatten, of 2904 W. 178th St., celebrated her third birthday last Saturday and thoroughly enjoyed her first birthday party with her seven guests. The usual ice cream and cake is always a novelty to children and it's such fun to have a party.
The Johnny Millers and the Reese Holbrooks are spending some of these lovely mild week ends at Elizabeth Lake Ranch Club. They have recently become members and discovering again the joys of desert life as if the beautiful green fields and tree shaded areas of Leona Valley can truly be called desert.
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cortez joined friends in Los Angeles to celebrate an anniversary last Saturday night.
David Osterberg celebrated his twelfth birthday on Saturday with a party for some of the boys on the block. Skip Mooney, Don Reynolds and Jim and David Jensen joined in the fun which was lots to eat and playing the games he received as gifts. Boys that age can put away a lot of ice cream I understand.
Eight hostesses, members of Ascension Lutheran Church, combined efforts to honor Mrs. Harold Kopke, of Gardena, at a baby shower. A joint gift of a high chair and cash were given. Mrs. Kopke is the wife of a pastor who teaches at the Lutheran High School in Inglewood. They attend the local church and are active in its work.
Junior High Girl Scout Troop 1374, under the leadership of Mrs. Nadine Wells and Mrs. Frances Heynes, presented a style show Friday night at Higgin's Brick Yard. Miss Lee of Robert Hall narrated. At a Court of Awards, Donna Apentels, Gene Brown, Sandra Ernst, Marsha Frost, Carleen Hansen, Barbara Heyns, Judy Hood, Sharon Hood, Linda Larson, Judy McCulley, Nancy McDonald, Patricia McDonald, Judy Sheels, Judy Simmons, Karen Smith, Sharon Thompson, Jean Wells and Margaret Zessiger received awards. A huge birthday cake and punch were served to about 70 people. The girls planned the entire evening and did a large share of the work. Reports are that the kitchen was left in beautiful condition.
We're sorry to hear that little Johnny Forsyth, 2, was bitten by a dog on Sunday while visiting at his uncle's house. He had to be taken to the Emergency Hospital where three stitches were taken. There will be no need for Pasteur treatment as the dog is well known to the family and the play just got too rough.
Nadine Wells has been taking extensive courses in Girl Scout training. When it is completed, she will have Junior High training and outdoor training as well as her licensed camper certificate. I wonder if the girls in her troop know how hard she works to prepare herself for the job?
Mrs. John Noble entertained the Birthday Club in honor of Mrs. Rick Hux on April 9 in the evening. Game prizes were won by Mrs. Lon Sanders and Mrs. Fred Coons. A bountiful repast was served to 10 ladies.
Although it has been two or three weeks since they were put in the people on 178th St., between Atkinson and Casimir are rejoicing about their new street lights.
Mrs. Francis Kuta entertained her neighbors at a cosmetic party Friday evening. Twelve guests enjoyed the demonstration and the refreshments served.
Butch Winsor of Haas Ave. celebrated his third birthday Sunday by entertaining both small and large guests at a party complete with ice cream and cake.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Neumann entertained Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Woodson while they were en route from the state of Washington, where Mr. Woodson was stationed while in the Marine Corps, to their home in Brighton, Ill. Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm, Wayfarers Chapel, Marineland and other points of interest in the Southland were visited.
The Stitches and Chatter Club held their annual spring party at Verbeke's Bar on last Sunday evening. It was an old-fashioned box social with 11 couples attending. Mrs. William Wilson won the prize for the prettiest box. Mrs. Thomas Hauge and Mrs. Charles Evans won door prizes. Mrs. N. R. Bruffy, Mrs. Glen Edbridge and Mrs. Robert Clark won the game prizes. Everyone agreed that the food, decorations and fun were the best.
